

AT STATE CAPITOL

NORTHERN LEGISLATORS WILL STAND TOGETHER AT THE COMING SESSION

Seeing the success of Southern California Legislators by standing together on matters affecting the Southland, members comprising the representation from the northern counties are talking of holding a caucus prior to the opening of the Legislature in January and make plans whereby they will be a little stronger than in past years. The San Francisco Bay region will be represented in this caucus which will take in the coast, mountain and valley counties from Stockton north.

The northern Legislators have always been a hard crowd to handle in a caucus. The San Francisco delegation usually sticks pretty close together, but aside from that exception the so-called "cow county" members do not find much co-operation when it comes to a sectional line-up. This time, however, report has it that some of the up-State members are going to exert themselves to lay aside bygone differences and work with their big town colleagues. A solid combination would give the northerners the balance of power.

It is a foregone conclusion that C. C. Young of Berkeley will again be chosen speaker of the Assembly. Several have been mentioned to succeed Newton Thompson of Alhambra as president pro tem of the Senate, but two of the most likely names discussed so far are Edwin J. Tyrrell and A. H. Breed of Oakland. These two solons are said to be making a campaign for the post which usually carries with it the title of floor-leader.

A couple of good jobs are open in Senate and House. Edwin F. Smith, the last secretary of the Senate, is now the property man of the State Board of Control, so will not seek re-election, and L. B. Mallory, chief clerk of the Assembly, is the assistant secretary of the State Board of Health. The sergeant-at-arms job in the Assembly is open and possibly the same place in the Senate, unless Thomas A. Brown wants to again go for the place.

There is going to be some lively rustling for committees on ways and means, judiciary, public morals and a couple of others. The new Lieut.-Gov., William D. Stephens, will have the naming of the committees in the Senate.

BIRDHOUSES

Today, tomorrow and Wednesday are the allotted days for sending in birdhouses. Every afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock at 327 South Brand, just south of the Palace Grand. The exhibition, free to the public, will be held on Friday and Saturday. This is the first time on the Pacific Coast that a birdhouse contest or exhibition has been held. Certainly Glendale is to the fore in this movement, and it is believed that Glendale residents will visit the exhibit in great numbers, and will invite their out-of-town friends to accompany them. Any boys or girls who wish to sell their birdhouses may put a price on them on Friday morning, and the Garden Society officials will sell them on behalf of the owners. Several people have already expressed their intention of buying houses, and at least three different individuals are coming out specially from Los Angeles for this purpose. Judging of the houses will be made on Wednesday evening.

SOCIAL NOTES

MRS. HARROWER SURPRISED—DINNER PARTY—SOPHOMORES MAKE MERRY

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE

The home of Dr. and Mrs. Henry R. Harrower on East Broadway was the scene of a happy social affair Sunday evening, the occasion being a birthday surprise in honor of Mrs. Harrower. By much maneuvering on the part of her friends the lady found it expedient to dress in her Sunday best and go visiting. When she returned home, the guests had all arrived and were waiting to welcome her. There was no question as to her surprise being genuine. Music and social intercourse made the occasion a very happy one. Prof. Miller played the piano in his usual masterful style and Miss Susine Westwood sweet music from her violin. Refreshments were served, an important feature being the delicious home-made cakes made by Miss Pearl Olds and Miss Lillian Santee. Among the out-of-town guests were Dr. and Mrs. Thomason and family of Long Beach and Miss Myrtle Harris of Pasadena.

DINNER PARTY

Miss Rose Virden charmingly entertained the sorority of which she is a member, composed of pharmacy students of the University of California, at a four-course five-o'clock tea Sunday evening at her home, No. 235 Mira Loma avenue, Tropic. The decorations were red carnations and red candelabra. Vocal and instrumental music completed the evening, among the many delightful numbers given being several vocal solos by Miss Lulu Lanterman, accompanied by her sister, Miss Harriet Lanterman. Those present were Mrs. Laird Stabler, Miss Olga Fitch, Miss Velba Agers, Miss Edith McDonough, Miss Vera Brown, Miss Edith Ewins, Miss Emma Thorne, Miss Edna Garrick, Miss Harriet Lanterman, Miss Ione Virden, Miss Lulu Lanterman, Miss Emma All and Miss Bertha Eichler.

MERRY CLASS PARTY

Seventy-three sophomores of the Glendale Union High School attended their class party at the home of Paul Richardson, No. 805 South Central avenue, Glendale, Friday evening.

The president of the class, Robert Carmack, had personally gone over each little detail with his committee, for the comfort and enjoyment of the guests.

Robert was injured last summer while boarding a moving car and has not deserted his crutches but gets around livelier with them than most boys without. The committee on entertainment were Jean Anderson, Cora Louise Butterfield, Cecilia Lyons, Dean Bryant and Mansford Barnes.

There was merriment from the time the first arrived till the last one left.

Tables had been arranged with many different games and puzzles to be solved and the piano was silenced by the many voices singing merry songs in another room. Miss Cora Butterfield decorated each with a carnation and when all had arrived the regular frolic began upstairs where the committee had arranged games for all to play together.

The refreshment committee were Eloise Leaman, Lila Shea, Gilbert Mitchell and Paul Richardson. The dainty refreshments were in the class colors—red and green. The park way was a blaze of red geraniums with green foliage—the class colors. The house was ornamented with lillies, carnations and roses of lighter shades.

Lastly the young people enjoyed dancing and lively games on the tennis court. Each one in saying good night declared they had a most delightful evening. The hostesses and chaperones were Mrs. Alexander Mitchell, Mrs. Robert Carmack, Miss Grunell, Miss Fenton and Mrs. Ella Richardson.

SPLendid PARTY

Did you ever enjoy yourself so much that the hours flew by like minutes? Well, that was the experience of the twenty-one children and adults who attended the Bird and Flower Club party on Saturday evening at the residence of Mrs. Nanno Woods, 1222 Milford street. From 7 to 9 is the time allotted for this monthly party, a short two hours, but Mrs. Woods does not believe in late hours for young people. The fifteen children, with several mothers and fathers, certainly did have a good time. As one father said: "I don't believe I ever enjoyed an evening more."

NO WORD FROM GENERAL TREVINO

INDICATIONS ARE THAT VILLISTA BANDITS ARE STILL ENCIRCLING CHIHUAHUA CITY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

EL PASO, Nov. 27.—Indications are that Villa is still attacking Chihuahua. Both sides have lost heavily. The fact that no word has been received from Gen. Trevino indicates that the bandit's forces are still encircling the city. All communication with the besieged town has been cut off. There are known to be fifteen Americans, thirty or more German, British and French subjects, 500 Chinese and a number of Spanish subjects and Arabian merchants in Chihuahua. A train sent from Juarez Saturday with re-enforcements to Gen. Trevino was either captured by Villistas or wrecked en route as it did not reach Chihuahua.

Later, it is reported that Trevino has withdrawn to north of Chihuahua. The report that he is hoping to trap Villa is denied.

ALLIES WARN GREEK GOVERNMENT THAT VENIZELLOS SUPPORTERS MUST BE GIVEN RIGHTS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

ROME, Nov. 27.—There is a report that the Greek cabinet has resigned. The French Minister to Greece has warned the Greek government in behalf of the entente allies that these countries cannot remain indifferent to the persecution to which adherents of the Venizelos cause are the object and the nations in question intend to see that Venizelos' supporters enjoy all the rights conferred upon them by law.

GERMANS CAPTURE ALEXANDRIA

IMPORTANT CITY IN WALLACHIAN TERRITORY FALLS TO VON MACKENSEN'S ARMY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

BERLIN, Nov. 27.—The Germans are making steady progress in the Roumanian campaign. The Danube army has captured Alexandria in Wallachian territory. In the Alt Valley the Roumanians are still offering tenacious resistance. The road from the Alt eastward is junction by burned towns and fleeing cart columns.

The junction between von Falkenhayn, sweeping down from the north upon Bucharest, and Field Marshal von Falkenhayn, from the south, places a bar of iron and steel through Roumanian from the Transylvanian Alps to the Danube with both arms swinging inward toward Bucharest.

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—A British warship, the Lancaster, stationed near Sandy Hook, sent out a wireless message last night to all allied merchantmen to beware of German submarines near the American coast, who are planning a wholesale raid against commerce.

RECIPROCITY DAY

TUESDAY AFTERNOON CLUB TO BE HOSTESS TO DISTRICT REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday at 2:30 p.m. in Masonic Temple, the Glendale Tuesday Afternoon Club in their annual reciprocity day will be hostess to delegates from all the clubs in the Los Angeles district of women's clubs. For the past two years the Literary Section of the club has had the honor and the responsibility of presenting the reciprocity day program to the visiting guests. This year the Music Section, which has the reputation of doing big things, is in charge of the afternoon, and under the direction of the curator, Mrs. E. W. Kinney, will present Miss Constance Balfour, an American soprano, an artist in concert, oratorio, recital and opera. Miss Balfour has been a pupil of Sbriglia in Paris, of Heineemann in Berlin and of Hugo Heinz in London. In London Miss Balfour achieved most noteworthy success in concert work, her singing in the salons of nobility being quite the talk of fashionable London. Miss Balfour has made a number of extensive concert tours, one recently embracing South Africa. Her repertoire is extensive, including the song and operatic literature of Germany, France, Italy, England and America. Miss Balfour in her program before the Tuesday Club will sing, among other numbers, a group of songs composed by J. Carl Briel, who will play his own selections, and a group of songs composed by a Glendale artist, Mr. Julius Kranz, who will accompany Miss Balfour with the violin obligato. At a conference of representatives of the Prohibition party at Los Angeles Thursday, a plan was launched for a campaign which includes the raising of a fund of $125,000 to make the fight for California dry.

The field will be limited to the five Congressional districts of Southern California and contemplates a continuance of the fight waged at the last election on a broader and more comprehensive scale. The general purposes are the raising of the fund, perfecting a strong organization, and conducting an educational campaign for the next two years for the purpose of electing Prohibition candidates to national, State and county offices.

CUPID PARTY

MISS MABETH PIGG, A DECEMBER BRIDE-TO-BE, IS COMPLIMENTED

Miss Mabeth Pigg, who will be a December bride and who has been lavishly entertained, was again honored by a Cupid party given on Saturday afternoon by Mrs. R. M. Jackson and Miss Atala Browning of Long Beach at the home of the former, No. 102 South Maryland avenue. Rich red lights cast a soft glow over the spacious rooms, which were hung with red hearts and wedding bells and twined with maiden-hair fern and red carnations.

Miss Margaret Dick of Los Angeles rendered several beautiful vocal numbers, appropriate to the occasion. Mrs. W. E. Evans gave a reading which was thoroughly enjoyed. After the guessing contest, in which the prize was won by Miss Anna Woodberry, the guests repaired to the dining-room, where a beautifully appointed two-course luncheon was served. Hand-painted place cards of golden-haired cupids holding hearts, marked their places at the different tables. A crystal basket filled with carnations and violets adorned the center of the bridal table, around which were seated members of the bridal party and others. Favours of tiny red baskets held bon bons for each guest.

Those invited were Misses George Duffet, Winifred Jones, Anna Woodberry, Margaret Dick, Myrtle Pulliam, Janie Rae, Lola East, Grace Shropshire, Barbara Mitchell, Nora Wilfred Brown, Birdie Shropshire, Elizabeth Jackson, Alice Gray Beach, Evelyn Kent, Gladys Anderson, Lillian Shropshire, Dorothy Morgan, Dorothy Hunt, Frae Morse Wells, Mrs. Mary Jane Evans Coole, Dorothy Hobbs, Louise Brown and Mabeth Pigg; Mesdames Gus Pulliam, Don Wells, Robert Lyons, George Robinson, Ralph Wright, E. L. Ballanger, F. W. Pigg, Mattison B. Jones, W. E. Evans, L. A. Phillips, M. Ewell Smith, and the hostesses. Next Saturday Miss Pigg will entertain her bridesmaids at a luncheon at her home, No. 127 South Brand boulevard. Numerous other affairs are being arranged for Miss Pigg by her many friends.

DEATH OF MR. VAN WIE

On Monday morning, November 27, in Los Angeles, occurred the death of Jacob Henry Van Wie, aged 77 years. The deceased was the father of A. J. Van Wie of Tropic. The funeral service will be conducted Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the undertaking parlors of Seavern, Letton and Frye, Tropic. The body will be shipped to Mason City, Iowa, for interment, that being the former home of Mr. Van Wie.

TO PIAN RECREATION CENTER

Those interested in the physical development of the young people are asked to remember the meeting at the intermediate school tonight at 7:30, called by Mrs. Hutchinson, president of the federation of Parent-Teacher Associations of Glendale to consider the matter of a recreation center and devise some plans of providing this much needed institution. Representatives of various civic organizations will be present and all who are interested will be welcome to make suggestions.

WHAT IS REAL NEWS

'What is news and how should news be written that the very most desirable information may be conveyed to the reader in the least possible space are questions that must be given careful consideration by the management of a newspaper. It is possible for writers to so pad their literary productions that when the padding is removed there remains very little solid matter.

KEEPING SUBSCRIBERS ON LIST

It is the desire of the management of The Evening News to so conduct the policy of the paper that subscribers will not drop the paper. However it is also the plan of the management to add two new names in place of the one taken off.

Carrie Jacobs Bond, the noted singer and song writer, will make her home in Hollywood upon the completion of her home. She has been granted a permit for the building of a beautiful home at 2042 Pinehurst road, the property consisting of five lots located in a canyon at the end of Pinehurst road. It is stated that the property will be made by Mrs. Bond one of the show places of Hollywood. She is at present residing in San Diego.

GLENDALE, CALIFORNIA, MONDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1916.

MAKE A COMPARISON IF YOU PLEASE

Those of the citizens of the Glendale community who have resided in the East or in the North may be interested in comparing the weather of the months of the year in Southern California with the weather of the corresponding months in the East and Middle West.

Saturday, November 25, was a beautiful day in Glendale, and so unlike the chilly bleak November days in Iowa, Illinois, Wisconsin and other States in the colder sections. On the Glendale Sanitarium lawn the guests were reclining upon the beautiful green grass, and bareheaded children were tumbling on the parking as if it were a July day in the Middle West.

Soon in the colder sections of the country Jack Frost will make his appearance, the streams will be frozen, and the rivers will become one continuous bridge of ice, weather reports will announce below zero temperatures. Winter with the surface of the earth frozen as hard as a rock, the ground covered with a thick coating of snow will soon be on in the prairie States. Herds of cattle gather in sheltered ravines and alongside of clusters of trees and buildings to protect themselves from the cold winds. Everybody who finds it necessary to be out of doors wears heavy clothing and thick gloves or mittens, and even then the ears are given a brisk rubbing now and then with the hand to keep them from freezing.

How great the contrast in Southern California. In this State of delightful climate there are no frozen rivers, there is no hard frozen ground, no icy walks, and no ears stinging from the effects of extreme cold. Mittens or gloves are seldom worn and the weight of clothing worn in the winter season does not vary much from the weight of clothing worn in the summer season.

Those of us who have spent the greater part of our lifetime where the winters are cold—where the jingle of sleigh bells are heard and city ordinances require that property owners shall be requested to keep adjacent sidewalks clear of snow greatly appreciate the delightful days of sunshine in Southern California.

TO SAVE LABOR FOR FARM WIVES

"Do you women who live on farms want to know how to make your work easier and pleasanter by new labor-saving methods?"

This is the question the University of California is asking the women of the State. Now the university has offered to send to any community a woman field agent to demonstrate "scientific efficiency" in the home, to show how the farm home may be made more homelike and attractive, and how the family may get more enjoyment from farm life. Any group of neighbor women, any women's club, or any community desiring such a demonstration should write to the Agricultural Extension Division at the University of California, and with no charge whatever by the university such a demonstration will be given.

A map recently compiled by the College of Agriculture, showing where the university has held such women's farm home demonstrations during the past year and a half recorded 140 different demonstrations in twenty-eight California counties before more than seven thousand women.

The two women field agents, experts in household matters, sent out by the University of California for this work, spend their whole time in the field. The demonstrations are usually held in farm homes, so that the neighbors may come in conveniently and see these demonstrations under the actual conditions of farm life in California.

PUBLIC PAYS THE BILL

The more places of business there are with additional rent, additional clerks and additional overhead expense, without the aggregate of business being any greater, the buying public must pay the additional expense. If additional places of business will draw additional trade such as is now being done outside of the Glendale community, all good and well, but if the $100,000 local buyers have been spending annually among home merchants is to be divided among twenty-five firms instead of twenty it means that the average receipts of each firm will be cut down, and each firm will be less able to pay bills they owe.

Whatever exists in the form of a local business concern in a community must get its support from the people of that community, so the fewer and the larger the concerns the better, providing they do business right. If there are to be additional business concerns established in this community they should be of that character that they can hold the trade that is now going to Los Angeles.

Glendale needs more business concerns that can buy in large quantities, carry large assortments of goods and thus hold trade in Glendale.

ALWAYS ON THE RELIABLE LIST

It is fortunate that the world is made up of a large per cent. of people who can be depended upon at all times. The merchant who possesses the qualification of being reliable is one in whom the buying public can put their confidence, and such an individual is a valuable asset to the community. Riley Lyons, proprietor of the Monarch Quality Grocery on Broadway, opposite the City Hall, is one of the dependable men who gets and holds trade on account of the fair treatment of his patrons.

PRACTICAL EDUCATION

Why is it not a good plan for boys and girls to be taught the importance of getting a practical education. The boy who leaves school with a very thorough and practical training in arithmetic, reading, spelling, writing and composition is better fitted to succeed in the business world than is the boy who knows a little about these subjects and many others, but does not have a thorough knowledge of any of them. It means a great deal for a boy to be able to add

ORIGIN OF KILT

Many centuries ago a poor monk was compelled to travel upon a long and arduous journey. His road was rocky, his sandals were worn, and he suffered agonies as he trudged grimly upon his holy errand. One day as he sat by the wayside resting a sheep came up to him, bleating in the most friendly fashion. The good monk petted the sheep and was grateful for its dumb friendliness, when suddenly he had an inspiration. He took out his sheath knife, sheared two handfuls of wool from the sheep and placed one in the heel of either sandal. That afternoon as he trudged along his feet seemed light, his step springy. The wool took the jar from his spine, the impact of the stony road from his aching, swollen feet.

The next morning as he started out he thought to rearrange the wool padding and discovered that the friction and the movement of his feet in the sandals had reduced the wool to a sort of a cloth. Thus was discovered felt, which to this day is one of the most effective substances ever discovered for padding purposes.

S. A. Woodford and Fred M. Smith of Los Angeles, representing men who they claim are willing to invest $110,000 in a great tourist hotel in Monrovia, met with members of the Monrovia Chamber of Commerce last Friday evening and made plans for a mass meeting, at which the hotel project will be explained and if a sufficient amount of interest is shown a committee will be appointed to solicit subscriptions. The hotel men ask a bonus of $25,000.

NO PLACE TO GO

The happiest night
I ever know
Are those when I've
No place to go.
When the missus says
When the day is through,
"Tonight we haven't
A thing to do."

Oh, the joy of it,
And the peace untold
Of sitting 'round
In my slippers old,
With my pipe and book
In my easy chair,
And the thought I
Needn't go anywhere.

Needn't hurry
My evening meal
Nor force the smiles
That I do not feel,
But grab a book
From a nearby shelf,
And drop all sham
And be myself.

Oh, the charm of it
And the comfort rare;
Nothing on earth
With it can compare;
And I'm sorry for him
Who doesn't know
The joy of having
No place to go.

Charles E. Colton, whose funeral was held in Los Angeles this week, raised the first American flag over Los Angeles. He was the first American to force his way into the Mexican citadel when the city was taken from the Mexicans more than sixty years ago.

D. E. Juvinall of 337 North Highland place, Monrovia, caught a wild cat in a trap last week. The animal weighed 15 1-4 pounds. It had been raiding Mr. Juvinall's chicken houses. Mr. Juvinall took the skin of the bob cat to Los Angeles to have it dressed.

Mayor Berkley of Santa Monica has declared himself as opposed to any more road races in Santa Monica. Other officials state that the accident in the Grand Prize race on November 18, costing the lives of four, spelled the doom of racing in the bay district.

At the national annual convention of the W.C.T.U. there were a number of temperance workers present who took part in the anti-saloon "crusades" more than forty years ago. At one of the sessions twenty-two women who were "crusaders" arose when asked to do so.

The shortage of freight cars in this State, and in fact all over the West, is said to be becoming more serious. It is estimated that there are in California some 18,000 carloads of grain, beans, honey, canned and dried fruits and dairy products awaiting transportation when the railroads can get cars.

Members of the junior class in the University of Southern California recently voted to abolish all advertising in El Rodeo, the official annual book published by the students, in the belief that merchants do not secure a fair return for money expended in advertising in student annuals and similar publications. The expense of publication will be borne partly by the students and partly by the university.

The verdict of the Coroner's jury at the inquest held over the body of Leslie B. Jenkins, cameraman, made the city of Santa Monica indirectly responsible for the four deaths at the seventh International Grand Prize race on November 18. The jury's verdict stated that Jenkins "came to his death as a result of an automobile race sanctioned by the city of Santa Monica, and we find that the course was not properly protected."

The directors of the Long Beach Chamber of Commerce on Thursday instructed the law and legislation committee, headed by Judge S. H. Underwood, and the harbor committee, of which P. E. Hatch is chairman, to consult with Senator-elect J. A. Rominger and Assemblyman-elect F. F. Merriam over the terms of the Long Beach bill for flood control in Southern California, to be introduced in the State Legislature next January. The bill will provide State aid for flood control, contingent on appropriations being made by the various counties and localities interested.

The report just issued by Labor Commissioner John P. McLaughlin of the public employment bureau of the State of California shows that 5134 positions were filled during the month of October, 4494 by men and 640 by women. This is 3609 more than were filled in February, when the State launched its employment bureau. The four bureaus, located in San Francisco, Oakland, Sacramento and Los Angeles, found work for about 200 men and women per day during October, and saved them $10,000 in fees. The State has connected 33,451 men and 5099 women with jobs since February 1, and the majority of them are still holding these positions.

Big surprises for the closing days of the Panama California International Exposition of San Diego are promised by the directors. New Year's Day will be the final day of the fair. A cat show, a Mother Goose day, with a great pageant for the children, a mammoth Thanksgiving service, and special musical program are features of the final days of November. The December calendar will include a children's fair on December 1, 2 and 3; sessions of the West Coast branch of the American Historical Association, December 2; Jack London day, December 7; Josephine Clifford MacCrackin day, December 14; school children's day, December 15; bird-house day, December 16; Harold Bell Wright day, December 21; a great Christmas day celebration in charge of the Shriners, December 25; San Diego writers' day, December 28, and the great closing celebration days, December 30, 31 and January 1.

FOR MONEY ALONE

"For the money there is in it," is a motive that is altogether too common these days. The money is, to be sure, a consideration, but it is not the only one to a true citizen. The effect of the venture upon the people is a matter that can not be left out of the affair. Where a man seeks only the money, and ignores the influence his transaction has upon the community, he is not only a public foe, but he undermines his own character as a man. Every business holds a definite relation to the public, and if that relation is ignored and the public receives no benefit, the business is a bad one. When a man starts out in the world with no other ambition than to make money, he stamps himself as an unworthy citizen, and his making the money is a blight upon himself and the public good. "For the money there is in it" is a debasing motive which should control no true man.—Ohio State Journal.

THE GREAT OBSTACLE

The pastor of a country church writes to us that "the great obstacle" to the success of his work lies in the fact that so many people are "indifferent to church activities." The brother has put a sure finger on a very common human failing. Indifference has always been the great obstacle to progress in every line of life. The enthusiasts are the salt of life, the leaven that keeps the world from growing stale. The indifferent man is not only a poor churchman; he is a poor merchant, a poor student, a poor farmer, a poor citizen, a poor lover. We might all pray to the Lord to deliver us from the evil of indifference. We might well do our part by cultivating our enthusiasms and giving them a practical turn. Fortunately for ourselves and for the world, we all have matters in which we take a natural interest, approaching the point of enthusiasm. These are the matters we should cultivate. They offer us success along the line of least resistance.—Farm Life.

HOW TO USE DRIED FRUIT

Take the required quantity of the dried fruit, rinse well under running water, then soak in fresh water for about fourteen hours. Next prepare a sirup to taste by adding best white sugar to boiling water. When the sirup has come to the boil place the soaked fruit very carefully in the sirup and allow it to simmer for fifteen minutes. On no account let the sirup boil when once the fruit is in it, as if you do it will become pulpy and unsightly.

Serve cold or hot, as required, as stewed fruit or in pies and tarts.

To make jam prepare the dried fruit as for stewing. Place the required quantity of soaked fruit in a preserving pan and add one pound of the best white sugar for each pound of soaked fruit. The time is as with the fresh fruit, but it is necessary to add more water.

Moreover, one pound of dried fruit will make four pounds of jam.

POLITICS A GREAT GAME

Young Hopeful—Father, what is a traitor in politics?

Veteran Politician—A traitor is a man who leaves our party and goes over to the other one.

Young Hopeful—Well, then, what is a man who leaves his party and comes over to yours?

Veteran Politician—A convert, my son.

SOME IDOL

Someone has sent us this one: Mrs. Jenkins had a passion for the old and curious. One day when rummaging through a bric-a-brac shop, she noticed a quaint figure, the head and shoulders of which appeared above the counter. "What is that Japanese idol over there worth?" she inquired. The salesman whispered: "About a half-million; that is the proprietor." — Builder and Contractor.

HOW LINDSAY TRIED GIN

Judge Lindsay of Denver was lunching one hot day when a politician paused beside his table.

"Judge," he said, "I see you're drinking coffee. That's a heating drink. In this weather you want to drink iced drinks, judge—sharp iced drinks. Did you ever try gin and ginger ale?"

"No," said the judge, smiling, "but I've tried several fellows who have."

LAWYER'S SHARE

"Now, children," said the teacher, "a man dies and leaves $1,000,000; one-tenth goes to the wife, our-twelfth to a son, one-sixteenth to a brother, one-twelfth to an uncle and the rest to a distant relative. What does each get?"

And the smallest boy in the class raised his hand and shouted:

"A lawyer!"
